Let's join Tall Tales Contest! 2013 District 76 Fall Conference in Fukuoka

Summer is over, and fall has come! But we, Toastmasters, have a hot event in fall! This fall's theme is "Tall Tales". Our fall contest will be judged on how effectively the speech theme is utilized. Please join us in Fukuoka, where our distinguished contestants who have competed in area and division contests will present their remarkable speeches! Join us for some of the most unforgettable Tall Tales you will ever hear! Experience the excitement our speakers will bring to Fukuoka while fall is coloring the trees!

What is special in Fall Conference? Message from participants

Banner March !

You cannot talk about the conference without talking about the Banner March! This is the highlight of the conference! Not only the remarkable speeches, but the spectacular banner march is surely an exciting part of the event. Your heart will beat faster when your club name is called. Your club representatives will be thrilled to be called out to carry your club's banner. The march of banners representing all our great club members is surely the highlight of the event.

Conference Party !

From Hokkaido to Okinawa... this is the sight you do not want to miss...where distinguished members gather. Not only will you meet great speakers, but also outstanding party butterflies! The hosting club will welcome all Toastmaster members with stunning party events! Please come and enjoy the acts from each division, commendation ceremonies for Toastmaster members for their contributions, and witness how the conference gets better year and after year.
