

WHERE LEADERS ARE MADE

www.toastmasters.org

Fee-charging Standard for District 76 Conferences

(Established February 2016)

	Friday evening	Saturday morning	Saturday afternoon	Saturday evening	Sunday morning	Basic policy
	Workshop by the invited guest	Workshops	Keynote speech Speech contest	Party	Speech by the invited guest Speech contest
Toastmasters members	Charged	Free of charge (Participating only in a workshop(s) cannot be accepted.)	Charged	Charged	Charged
Prospective club members (unchartered club members who do not pay dues to TMI)	Charged	Free of charge (Participating only in a workshop(s) cannot be accepted.)	Charged	Charged	Charged	Prospective club members are treated in the same way as chartered club members on the assumption that their clubs will be chartered in the near future.
Non-Toastmasters guests (guests invited by TM members, etc.)	Charged	Free of charge (only when the capacity is not reached)	Charged	Charged	Charged
Guests from overseas toastmasters clubs (except guests officially invited by the District or the conference committee)	Charged	Free of charge (Participating only in a workshop(s) cannot be accepted.)	Charged	Charged	Charged
Media reporters	Free of charge	Free of charge	Free of charge	Not applicable	Free of charge	Media are considered an important source of publicity for the Toastmasters Club.
Ad sponsors	Sponsorship of less than 30,000 yen: free of charge for one person; sponsorship of 30,000 yen or more: free of charge for up to two persons					This criterion applies even to sponsors who are Toastmasters members.

This Standard is designed to be used as a reference for the district conference committee to determine whether or not a participation fee should be charged to non-Toastmasters participants in a particular event. The final decision as to whether or not the participation fee will be charged and how much it will be is left with the district conference committee, and the committee must make the decision by taking local practices, the circumstances of the conference, and other factors into account.